What to bring:

Casual clothes are great for camp: t-shirts, shorts, shoes, jeans, etc. Just keep it modest. NO short shorts, strapless tops, midriffs and the like. Swimsuits may be worn ONLY during swimming.

What not to bring:

Discman's, Walkman's, i-pods, radio's, computers, DVD players, etc., fireworks, illegal substances and bad attitudes.

Also remember:

A sleeping bag, toothbrush and toothpaste, soap and shampoo, deodorant, sunscreen, a towel, a flashlight, $$ for snacks, a notebook, pen and pencil, and of course YOUR BIBLE!

Please be advised:

The camp directors and the staff reserve the right to send any camper home at the parents' expense.

What else do I need to know?

All campers must attend all chapel services and any organized camp activities. We also expect there to be no fighting, no profanity, no maliciousness, disobedience, disrespect or inappropriate PDA and NO girls in guy cabins and NO guys in girl cabins. Finally, the camp administration has asked everyone to be in his or her cabin and accounted for by midnight each night.

What do I need to wear?

In the area of dress, we desire teens to dress with Christian simplicity and modesty, understanding the reasoning behind the desire is to glorify God in every area of life. The eight B's serve as a guideline for both male and female clothing choices at District NYI activities. The following things should not be seen or exposed (even when bending over): Bra, Bare Shoulders, Breasts, Backs, Belly, Boxers, Bottoms and Bedroom Wear. The emphasis is on developing a relationship with teens to guide them toward spiritual maturity.

I have read the above and understand that if I do not follow the guidelines, I will forfeit my right to stay at camp.
